PARTS OF FAIRVIEW-RIVERSIDE STATE PARK RE-OPEN, POST-ISAAC, FONTAINEBLEAU STATE PARK CABINS REMAIN CLOSED FOR REPAIRS

Otis House, the riverside campground and day-use area of Fairview-Riverside State Park have reopened to the public following repairs of Hurricane Isaac-related damage. The park's front campground is undergoing an upgrade of its electrical system, and is anticipated to be complete by the end of January 2013.

Several amenities at Fontainebleau State Park remain closed including the park's cabins, new meeting room and Area 1 Group Camp, pending damage assessment by FEMA and the Office of Risk Management. Reservations at these facilities have been cancelled through August 2013. The campground, day use area, lodge and Area 3 Group Camp reopened in October.

Visitors with existing reservations at Fontainebleau State Park will be contacted by ReserveAmerica regarding their stay. For more information about Louisiana State Parks, visit www.LaStateParks.com.
